

PRESS RELEASE

October 8th, 2009

CBR advises Pilkington on the sale of its one of its businesses

The Pilkington Group (part of the Japanese NSG Group), one of the leading manufacturers of glass designed for the building and automotive industries, has sold its French subsidiary which is specialized in the transformation of glass products and the manufacturing of double glazing units.

The Purchaser is the Riou Group, based in Normandy.

CBR advised the Pilkington Group, with Partner Neil Robertson and Associates, Olivier Kry and Johannes Singelstein.

The Riou Group was advised by Fidal (Christophe Mikolajczac, Partner and Aurélie Bonnet, Associate).

CBR's Partner, Neil Robertson, has recently advised Prince on the acquisition of its French distributor, Brive Rugby on its acquisition of CA Brive, the Rahman Group of India on the purchase of Lemaître Sécurité, and ChâteauOnline on the sale of the "Repaire de Bacchus" chain of off-licence shops.
