

EUROPEAN LEGAL EXPERT 2008

Janvier 2008

✓ EU and Competition

Nathalie Jalabert-Doury is the partner in charge of the competition and distribution law department of Carreras, Barsikian, Robertson & Associés. She has developed an extensive practice in all aspects of competition law, whether at the national or European level: cartels, concerted practices and abuse of dominant position, investigations and infringement procedures, mergers, horizontal and vertical agreements, distribution, and State aids. She has acquired specific experience in international cartel cases through her intervention in several EC and French high-profile cases, such as the cement and plasterboard cartel cases.

In 2005, she published a practical guide on antitrust dawn-raids to assist companies faced with investigations by EC and French Competition Authorities.

Nathalie Jalabert-Doury frequently participates in conferences and seminars on competition law. She is a member of the IBA, of the Competition Law Forum of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law, of the Association Française d'Etude de la Concurrence and of the Association Française des Femmes Juristes.

✓ Media and entertainment

Alain Barsikian has been a partner of Carreras, Barsikian, Robertson & Associés since 2002. He is a well-recognised media lawyer in France and specialises in the negotiation and drafting of music, cinema, television, sports and multimedia contracts. He has extensive experience in tax law (company tax, personal tax, litigation), intellectual property and customs law. He handles litigation in media-related matters: IP rights' infringements, defamation, privacy rights infringements, corporate law and acquisitions.

Alain Barsikian is graduated from the National Tax School (Ecole nationale des Impôts) and worked in the Finance Ministry (Ministère des finances) before turning to private practice, first as a member of BHF M Law Firm, and then with Carreras, Barsikian, Robertson & Associés.

Pierre-Olivier Chartier has been a partner of Carreras, Barsikian, Robertson & Associés since 2004. He specialises in media and corporate litigation and also advises clients in the IT and telecoms sector on contractual matters. Pierre Olivier Chartier has developed a significant practice in pre-and post-mergers and acquisitions litigation (including disputes relating to shareholders' agreements and claims for breach of representations and warranties) and represents clients before the courts in contract and tort matters, as well as media law. He also appears before specific courts in relation to sports law matters.
